PRAYER OF FAITH
Read by Carlie Irvine

We trust that beyond absence there is a presence.
That beyond the pain there can be healing.
That beyond the brokenness there can be wholeness.
That beyond the anger there may be peace.
That beyond the hurting there may be forgiveness.
That beyond the silence there may be the word.
That beyond the word there may be understanding.
That through understanding there is love.

BIBLE READING
“Ecclesiastes 3”
Read by Trent Macdonald

There is a time for everything,
and a season for every activity under the heavens:
a time to be born and a time to die,
a time to plant and a time to uproot,
a time to kill and a time to heal,
a time to tear down and a time to build,
a time to weep and a time to laugh,
a time to mourn and a time to dance,
a time to scatter stones and a time to gather them, a time to embrace and a time to refrain from embracing,
a time to tear and a time to mend,
a time to be silent and a time to speak

EULOGY

Read by Diane Parker

23RD PSALM

Read by Kiara Parker

The Lord is my shepherd;
I shall not want.
He maketh me to lie down in green pastures:
He leadeth me beside the still waters.
He restoreth my soul:
He leadeth me in the paths of righteousness
for His name's sake.
Yea, though I walk through the valley
of the shadow of death, I will fear no evil:
for thou art with me;
thy rod and thy staff they comfort me.
Thou preparest a table before me
in the presence of mine enemies:
thou anointest my head with oil;
my cup runneth over.
Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me
all the days of my life:
and I will dwell in the house of The Lord for ever.

It is with love and gratitude that the family
thank you for your kindness and expressions of sympathy at a time when it is needed and deeply appreciated.

Pete's family would like to welcome you back to the adjoining Function Room of Alan Harris McDonald for light refreshments and to share the many wonderful memories
you all have shared with Peter.
