Julie Ellen Brown

OPENING SONG

"When You Say Nothing At All" by Ronan Keating

WELCOME & INTRODUCTION

Chris Longhurst

PRAYER OF FAITH

We trust that beyond absence
there is a presence.
That beyond the pain
there can be healing.
That beyond the brokenness
there can be wholeness.
That beyond the anger
there may be peace.
That beyond the hurting
there may be forgiveness.
That beyond the silence
there may be the word.
That beyond the word
there may be understanding.
That through understanding
there is love.

COMMEMORATIVE READING

"Her Journey's Just Begun"

Read by Teak Brabander

Don't think of her as gone away Julie's journey's just begun,
Life holds so many facets this earth is only one.

Just think of her as resting from the sorrows and the tears,
In a place of warmth & comfort where there are no days & years.

Think how she must be wishing that we could know today,
How nothing but our sadness can really pass away.

And think of her as living in the hearts of those she touched...
For nothing loved is ever lost and she was loved so much.

COMMEMORATIVE READING

"She Is Gone"

Read by Kerri Brown

You can shed tears that she is gone
Or you can smile because she has lived
You can close your eyes and pray that she will come back
Or you can open your eyes and see all that she has left
Your heart can be empty because you can't see her
Or you can be full of the love that you shared
You can turn your back on tomorrow and live yesterday
Or you can be happy for tomorrow because of yesterday
You can remember him and only that she is gone
Or you can cherish his memory and let it live on
You can cry and close your mind, be empty and turn your back
Or you can do what he would want: smile, open your eyes, love and go on.
