READING
“Memories” By Piers Lane
Read by Fae Field

When the years of my life have come to an end,
The time of farewell comes to pass, Remember the days that we all shared, Say my name, tell a tale, raise a glass. Each day of my life, I've been blessed to have known good friends who have travelled each mile;
I ask of you this, if you will, now and then: Think of me, picture us, with a smile.
Because life is a gift that cannot be kept
Protected, avoiding the end, live for each truth that you already know: Seize the day, care for all, love your friends. My time here is over, I'm resting elsewhere, at peace, I have fallen asleep.

THE LORD'S PRAYER

Our Father who art in heaven,
Hallowed be thy name.
Thy kingdom come.
Thy will be done on earth, as it is in heaven.
Give us this day our daily bread.
And forgive us our trespasses,
as we forgive those who trespass against us.
And lead us not into temptation,
But deliver us from evil.
For thine is the kingdom, the power and glory
Forever and ever. Amen.
